

NEVER STOP LEARNING

Libraries Week
3rd - 9th October
2022

As part of National Libraries week the Library services team are hosting a series of workshops which are designed to help you to get started with the Library and develop your academic skills. These will take place between the 3rd and 9th October and you can book by using the QR code.

Book Libraries
Week Workshops

Library Portal

Monday (3rd October)

- Reading journal articles critically (Browzine)
- Reading and Notetaking using BibliU
- An introduction to the Library Portal
- Building your search strategy
- Introduction to IBIS World

Tuesday (4th October)

- An introduction to Science Direct
- Building your search strategy
- An introduction to the Library Portal
- Introducing the new Library search interface
- An introduction to Practical Law
- An introduction to BibliU

Thursday (6th October)

- An introduction to BibliU
- Using Gale Research Complete
- An introduction to Sage Journals
- An introduction to the Library Portal
- Reading Society Taster using BibliU

Friday (7th October)

- An introduction to the Library Portal
- Writers Retreat taster session
- Making the most of the Library Portal for your literature review
- An introduction to Westlaw
- Advanced Literature Searching

